WORLD NEWS BY CABLE

(Associated Press Cable.)

NEGRO LYNCHED.
Marshall, Texas, Oct. 2.—A negro was lynched here during the night.

RECRUITING ORDERED.
Sofia, Oct. 2.—In view of the action of the Sultan in adding to his army, recruiting has been ordered here.

BEET SUGAR CUT.
Los Angeles, Oct. 2.—The beet sugar cut of ten cents, representing the difference between cane and beet prices, will now go to the courts.

SAVED FROM MOB.
Oxford, Ohio, Oct. 2.—Just as a mob was stringing up Joseph Spitz the police rescued him. Hundreds of townspeople rushed to the aid of the mob and in the fight that ensued Spitz's brothers wounded five.

BALFOUR OPENS CAMPAIGN.
London, Oct. 2.—Prime Minister Balfour opened the Parliamentary campaign in a speech at Sheffield. Great interest was taken in it. The papers of both parties comment unfavorably upon the address.

NEGOTIATIONS OFF.
Rome, Oct. 2.—Negotiations in regard to Philippine lands between the United States and the Vatican have been called off and Monsignor Guidi, who has them in charge, will return here. The negotiations will then be resumed directly between Rome and Washington.

TAMMANY NOMINATES.
New York, Oct. 2.—Tammany has nominated George B. McClellan for Mayor and E. M. Grout for Comptroller.

Geo. B. McClellan, son of Gen. Geo. B. McClellan, Democratic nominee for President in 1864, is but thirty-eight years old, but has made great strides in politics. He was at one time a member of the New York Board of Aldermen and since 1895 has been a member of Congress. Lewis Nixon announced himself as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Mayor of New York a week ago but the statement of the one time leader of Tammany Hall that he could not remain at the head of the powerful Democratic machine and keep his self respect was the cause of his defeat in the convention. McClellan has done considerable work on New York newspapers.

Edward M. Grout is a New York lawyer and is known as a "municipal ownership" man and a strong opponent of corporations asking for franchises for which they make no adequate payment to the municipality.

ONE MONTH'S GRACE.
The new insurance law went into effect yesterday, the law providing that "it shall be unlawful for any company or corporation to transact the business of insurance in this Territory unless it shall have complied with all of the provisions of this Act and obtained the certificate of authority from the Commissioner as herein provided."

Commissioner Kepolka has extended the time of complying for a month. Insurance agents' license of authority and a certificate of authority were yesterday issued by Deputy Commissioner Smithies to F. L. Winter of the Mutual Reserve Life Insurance Co. of New York.
